Administration Debbie Tiehen, Administrator

History and Function Established in 1972, the Public Employees Relation Board (PERB) administers the provisions of the Fire and Police Arbitration Act (FPAA), 11 O.S. § 51–101 et seq., which governs collective bargaining for police officers and firefighters. The board also administers the Municipal Employee Collective Bargaining Act (MECBA) 11 O.S. § 51–200 et seq., which oversees the collective bargaining relationship between municipal employers and employee organizations representing municipal employees in communities with populations of 35,000 or more. Under both acts, PERB prohibits certain practices by municipal employers and employee organizations, provides procedures for filing, investigation and adjudication of election petitions and unfair labor practice charges (prohibited practice charges).
