Mission Statement To promote healthy communities and provide the highest quality care to enhance the well-being of all Oklahomans.

Administration Terri White, Commissioner

Personnel 1,135 classified, 956 unclassified, 159 temporary

History and Function Care of the state's mentally ill was the responsibility of individual institutions and hospitals until 1947 when the Department of Mental Health was created by the Oklahoma Legislature. In 1953 the legislature enacted the state's first comprehensive Mental Health Law with a seven member Mental Health Board appointed by the governor and confirmed by the Oklahoma Senate to direct the commission. The department operates and/or funds three hospitals, community mental health centers and substance abuse programs throughout the state, residential care centers, and numerous mental health and substance abuse services and support initiatives.

OFC also provides mental health treatment and evaluation for all persons deemed “not guilty by reason of insanity,” by district courts in Oklahoma counties. OFC provides training to ODMHSAS forensic evaluators and professionals from other state agencies across Oklahoma and authors the Oklahoma Forensic Mental Health Services Manual.

Forensic Review Board (22 O.S. § 1161)

Members Cliff Thomas, PhD, Chair; Rand Baker, member; Nancy Coats-Ashley, JD, member; Verna Foust, member; Richard Hartman, MD, member; Steve Norwood, member; Mike Segler, JD, member.

History and Function The Forensic Review Board is composed of seven (7) members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Oklahoma Senate. The Board meets quarterly to review and determine which individuals adjudicated “not guilty by reason of insanity” and confined with the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services are eligible for therapeutic visits, conditional release or discharge, and whether the Board wishes to make such a recommendation to the court of the county where the individual was found “not guilty by reason of insanity.”
