History and Function The Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics & Dangerous Drugs Control (OBN) was created as an independent agency in 1975. OBN is responsible for drug enforcement in Oklahoma; to enforce the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substance Act as outlined in the Oklahoma Statutes, Title 63; to train state and local law enforcement officers; and to compile drug-related statistics. The strength of OBN lies in the unique skills and abilities of dedicated agents and support staff. They conduct a wide variety of specialized programs to combat the local availability of various domestic and foreign produced drugs. Enforcement, intelligence, diversion, regulatory, wire intercept, legal, analytical, and educational activities are directed from OBN headquarters in Oklahoma City; five district offices located in Tulsa, McAlester, Ardmore, Lawton, and Woodward; and ten regional offices in Ada, Altus, Clinton Duncan, Enid, Guymon, Henryetta, Idabel, Muskogee, and Stillwater. OBN maintains an aggressive and proactive approach toward reducing the local availability of drugs and addressing the ever-changing climate of narcotics distribution and abuse. This, combined with future strategies, defines the character of OBN and drives this agency toward the ultimate quest of creating a “drug-free” Oklahoma.
